

The Gables Messenger

A Publication of The Gables at East Mountain

Oct/Nov/Dec 2016

Meet our Newest Residents

Jennie Craig

Background: Jennie grew up in Oradell, NJ. After graduating from the Dwight School for Girls in Englewood, she attended Smith College in Northampton, MA, receiving a Bachelor of Liberal Arts degree. Jennie then went to the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work for her Master of Social Work. Jennie worked for many years as a social worker in protective services, elementary schools, and on high school Child Study Teams. She moved to The Gables to live closer to her daughter, son-in-law and two grandchildren who reside in Killington.

Jennie then went to the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Work for her Master of Social Work. Jennie worked for many years as a social worker in protective services, elementary schools, and on high school Child Study Teams. She moved to The Gables to live closer to her daughter, son-in-law and two grandchildren who reside in Killington.

Interests: Reading books and newspapers, and watching her grandson's sporting events. In the past, Jennie enjoyed archeology and traveled to the Middle East for archeological excavations. She was a board member at Employment Horizons (which helps employ those with special needs).

Jack & Marianna Grimes

Background: Both Jack and Marianna were born and raised in Dover, NH and were high school sweethearts. They married in 1961. Following graduation,

Jack attended Wentworth College for two years, and then went onto University of Hampshire (UNH) where he received a degree in general studies with a concentration in engineering. Marianna went to UNH and graduated with a liberal arts degree. She worked in management information systems, until working with UNH's alumni foundation in the area of major gift fundraising, retiring as vice president. After a stint with Kidder Press Company, Jack worked the next 30 years for Davidson Rubber, a manufacturer of automotive instrument panels. He started as an engineer and retired as product director (he holds 14 patents). The Grimes share their apartment with their dog, Putter, and have a son, daughter, two grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter.

Interests: Marianna—following college hockey, serving on civic community boards, and the Red Sox. Jack—golfing, fishing, following college hockey, sailing, and the Red Sox

The Gables Holiday Party

Thursday, December 22nd
(in the living room following dinner)

The Year in Pictures

Wishing you a happy and healthy 2017!